AssetMark Honors Financial Advisors with Community Inspiration Award at Annual Gold Forum Event

In recognition of six financial advisors' outstanding commitment to local charities, firm donates $60,000 to nonprofits

CONCORD, CA — March 4, 2019 — AssetMark, Inc., a leading provider of innovative investment and consulting solutions for financial advisors, today announced the six honorees of its sixth annual Community Inspiration Award at the firm's premier Gold Forum conference in Carlsbad, California. AssetMark is donating $10,000 to the charitable organization supported by each recipient in honor of their sustained contributions and ongoing community support.

This year's honored advisors and the designated organizations receiving donations are:

Advisor	Firm Name	Charitable Organization
Andrew Kern	Clelan and Company	MJS Achievement Foundation
Kevin Nast	NastGroup Financial	Life Remodeled
Marissa Nehlsen	Freedom Financial Group	Foundation Latin America
Tim Redmond	Newcastle Financial Advisors	Special Olympics, Southern California
Heather Rohrs	Masterpiece Financial Services	Camp Lightbulb
Warren Stickney	Stickney Research	Pike Place Market Foundation

"We are excited to be part of an industry that gives so much back through charitable work and contributions," said Charles Goldman, President and CEO of AssetMark. In recognizing these six advisors we are inspired, and hope to inspire others, to do even more to make a difference in the communities where we live and work."

Award recipients were selected by a panel of senior executives at AssetMark, who evaluated nominees based on their ability to inspire, lead and motivate others, in addition to their time and effort dedicated to a local charity. Echoing the firm's values of "Heart, Excellence, Integrity, and Respect," the Community Inspiration Award provides one of many opportunities for AssetMark's associates and advisors to connect with and promote their shared values by submitting nominations for the award. All nominees met a variety of requirements and could not hold an officer position within their associated charities. All nonprofit recipients are qualified 501(c)(3) organizations.
