

PERSONAL PROFILE

Bruce Knivila Of Counsel

bknivila@rose-law.com

PRACTICE EMPHASIS

- Corporate Transactions
- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Commercial Agreements
- Ownership Succession Events
- Shareholder Disputes

EDUCATION

- J.D., Georgetown University Law Center, magna cum laude, 1992
- B.A., George Mason University, 1989

ADMISSIONS

- Oregon (1992)

Bruce Knivila is not employed by nor a member of Rose Law Firm, P.C. Bruce practices law from a separate and independent law firm, however, he associates with Rose Law Firm to serve specific clients of Rose Law Firm on discrete matters.

Bruce Knivila serves as Of Counsel for Rose Law Firm and brings over 25 years of experience in business transactions and litigation, involving clients ranging from individuals to Fortune 500 companies.

Bruce has spent time in both large and small firms. His current solo practice focuses primarily on business transactions and outside general counsel services. His work includes mergers & acquisitions, corporate transactions, strategic planning, business consulting and advice, commercial agreements, ownership succession events and corporate governance. He also has a strong focus in using technology to improve his practice and outcomes for his clients.

Bruce has years of experience in negotiating agreements for clients of all sizes, as well as representing companies in administrative proceedings and public contracting matters.

Prior to his solo practice, Bruce's practice included civil litigation, commercial litigation (including shareholder disputes, bad faith and misrepresentation claims, and trade disputes), appellate law, and real estate (including commercial leasing).

