CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP®

The CFP certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its high standard of professional education; stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. The CFP certification maintains rigorous standards. To attain the right to use the CFP marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education: Approved curriculum
- Examination: Comprehensive exam
- Experience: 6,000 hours experience (or 4,000 hours through the apprenticeship pathway)
- Ethics: Strict code of conduct. A CFP must provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care, meaning in the best interests of their clients. Failure to comply could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP certification.
- Continuing Education (CE): Completion of 30 hours of CE every two years.

To learn more about the CFP certification, please visit the CFP Board website: <https://www.cfp.net>.
