Greater Green Bay Chamber announces the 2022 Golden Apple Awards recipients

Green Bay, Wis. (February 23, 2022) - The Greater Green Bay Chamber, with the help of WLUK Fox 11 and other major sponsors, surprised the 2022 Golden Apple Awards recipients on Monday, February 21 to Wednesday, February 22, 2022.

The Golden Apple Awards celebrate education, the foundation of the Greater Green Bay community, and recognize the high standards of professionalism, leadership, and innovation in teaching. After an extensive selection process, these teachers were selected as 2022's esteemed Golden Apple recipients.

- Cora Blackburn, Glenbrook Elementary School
- Mark Bonetti, Preble High School
- Weeya Calif, Foxview Intermediate School
- Mary Handrich, Denmark High School
- Minerva Salas Escamilla, Nicolet Elementary School
- Lauren Schumacher, Luxemburg-Casco High School
- Char Wilson, Pulaski Community Middle School
- Ashwaubenon High School Technology Education Team: Tom Barnhart, Jeremie Meyer, and David Stroud

Pictures from the surprise visit days are available on the Chamber's Facebook page at Facebook.com/GreaterGreenBayChamber.

The 2022 Golden Apple Awards celebration will be held on Wednesday, April 20, 2022, at the Radisson Hotel & Conference Center. The event is open to the public with registration opening on March 1, 2022.
