Rodriguez and Karrels join H.J. Martin and Son

Green Bay, Wis. – Bethany Rodriguez has joined H.J. Martin and Son as the newest Interior Designer and Emma Karrels has joined the team as a new 3D Rendering and Design Assistant. Both women will be working out of the Green Bay Design Showroom for the Residential Flooring Division.

Rodriguez most recently worked at VerHalen & Pella Windows & Doors as an account manager/architectural consultant. Her skills from these roles have made her a great addition to the design team. She is currently finishing up her associate degree in interior design at Fox Valley Tech. She also has an associate degree in business management from Northeast Wisconsin Technical College.

Karrels will be helping clients visualize and execute ideas through 3D renderings in this new role. She will also be assisting the residential design team to help give customers the best experience. Karrels recently graduated from Fox Valley Tech with an associate degree in interior design. Additionally, she will be bringing previous experience to her position from working in various design roles over the years.
