

“Having worked in this industry for 25 years...I’ve never seen a product have this profound of an impact on our residents.”

Andrea Ellen
Maplewood Senior Living

"I cannot explain in words the emotions we saw the resident have when we played the experience for her. The smile, tears, and little speech she had left... The resident passed away a few weeks later. Her family and I have remained close friends. They still tell people that Rendeever gave them a glimpse of their mother for who she was before dementia took her away."

Billy Blake
Lifespace Communities

"I believe this incredible therapeutic intervention made a positive impact in her quality of life today. This experience also brought much joy to me and the interdisciplinary team who serve her as well as bringing to light the value of VR in our home."

A man in a dark suit jacket is shown in profile, looking down at a tablet computer he is holding. The tablet screen displays a grid of small video feeds. In the background, there are blurred computer monitors and a desk with some items on it.

“When we first rolled out Rendeever, I was present to see our residents reaction and it brought me to tears. The engagement, enthusiasm and pure excitement was a thrill. I knew we made the right decision in choosing Rendeever.”

Kevin Hunter
The Hearth

“I have been working in Dementia Care for 30 years and I always look for areas of engagement that bring the ‘Wow Factor’ and Rendever is it. Every time someone uses Rendever the first word out of their mouth is ‘WOW!’ This product is changing lives.”

Mary Poole
Christian Care Communities

"The technology that Rendever provides has assisted in making moments meaningful and engaging during family visits and our student/resident partnership program. The application of this technology is limitless and the emotions evoked are priceless."

Mandy Shadwick
Royal Oaks

“Rendever sessions generate so much conversation among our residents both during and after. It is so rewarding. They are always very grateful for the trip down memory lane! It has been so amazing. Love this product and this company, highly recommend!”
